- Returns should be shipped prepaid, unless otherwise authorized.

Shipping: Melvin S. Roos & Co., Inc. makes every effort to send your shipment the best way and at the lowest possible price by using preferred carriers, UPS and FedEx Ground, whenever shipment size permits, unless otherwise requested. Larger shipments are sent by common carrier at negotiated rates. Unless instructed to the contrary, common carrier shipments go freight collect. F.O.B oriain.

Upon request, an estimate of freight charges will be prepared for any customer's order. However, this should be considered only an estimate and the customer is responsible for all actual freight charges incurred.

Damages: The carrier is responsible for damage in transit, however it is important that the customer open and inspect all cartons immediately upon arrival to be eligible to file freight claim. All damaged merchandise must be reported to the carrier and/or Melvin S. Roos & Co., Inc. within 5 days of receipt. Claims made after 10 days cannot be honored.

- UPS/FedEx Damages: If you discover damage after opening the package(s), save all the packing materials and call UPS/FedEx to request an inspection. UPS/FedEx will settle the claim with Melvin S. Roos & Co., Inc. If the claim is honored, Melvin S. Roos & Co., Inc. will issue a credit to you.
- Truck Line Damages: All shipments are insured against damage in transit. Therefore, it is important that you inspect cartoms upon delivery. When a carton is visibly damaged upon arrival, it must be indicated when signed by the truck Bill of Lading. Additionally, both copies should be signed by the driver to protect you and enable you to file a claim against the carrier. All honored claims by common carriers will be paid directly to the customer. Retain all original packaging and take photographs of damage if possible.
- Concealed Damages: If after opening a package you discover damage, save all the packing materials and call the carrier immediately to report the claim. Claims must be filed with the carrier within 10 days of signing for the freight. Melvin S. Roos & Co., Inc. will be glad to assist you with any claim.
